TOPWORKING OF CITRUS TREES

We bud large citrus trees over to varieties that are better suited to the particular locality in which they are growing. In many cases, where we have topworked old trees of undesirable varieties, we have made the orchard pay a considerable profit within three or four years. The cost of topworking a tree varies from $1.00 up, which includes the cost of materials, and the after care of the buds until they start growing.

INARCHING OF GOPHERED TREES

Many times a beautiful, healthy tree has been seriously damaged by gophers or rodents. If the bark has been destroyed part way around the tree, this tree can be easily brought back to its normal condition by the insertion of from one to three inarches. This is a most valuable service which the Tetley Nurseries render to all growers who live within 15 miles of Riverside. The cost of inarching is 50c per tree up.
